

Town of Southeast Zoning Board of Appeals Chairman Wins Prestigious Award

Edward Colello, Chairman of the Zoning Board of Appeals of the Town of Southeast, was recently awarded the David Allee award by the New York Planning Federation at an awards luncheon in Albany NY. The David Allee Award is given annually to recognize an outstanding Zoning Board Chair in the State of New York. Ed has been a member of the town of Southeast ZBA for more than 20 years and has been Chair for the last 15 years. His overriding sense of fairness and his use of humor when appropriate were traits that were identified in giving him this award.
